

Gazeta Wspolczesna, page 1, Tuesday, July 19th, 2005,

SHORT

• TOWN In this coming Wednesday at 6 pm in an Contemporary Art Gallery (13 Długa Street, Łomża) will take place a vernissage of Anita Flejter's painting. The artist, who finished here the Art High School, will present her works in a home town. Former student of the Academy of Fine Arts in Cracow, Department of Art Conservation and Restoration, she is now studying at the New York University.

In the Łomża art gallery Anita Flejter will present nudes, women in the provocative poses, exploring the world of emotions and feelings.

-Anita Flejter's Paintings are scooping personal and intimate character – states PhD Lukas Konieczko from Cracow. – Some of them convert us from being just spectators, “onlookers” into being “voyeurs”.

MRD