

Gazeta Wspolczesna, page 1, Friday-Sunday, July 29-31, 2005,

Predatory Anita

In the November last year Anita Flejter, painter and photographer for Lomza, being persuaded by her brother flew away to New York. After eight months her works were entered to art galleries of the art world capital. However she didn't forget about the home town. Provocative poses, parted thighs and expressive gestures of women on Anita Flejter's Paintings will be arousing the surprise, if not scandal in Contemporary Art Gallery.

Read on the page 7.